Re: Sitzes et al. v. City of West Memphis, Arkansas, et al., 3:08-CV-00026-WRW

Dear Mr. Charton and Mr. Wren:

I am prepared to grant summary judgment with respect to the federal law claims.

I am also inclined to decline pendent jurisdiction on the state law claims; but I want to be satisfied that the Arkansas “savings statute”¹ will reserve and preserve all of Plaintiffs’ state law claims for the time period prescribed in that statute. I think it does, but do you agree? Please advise me “yea” or “nay” by 5:00 p.m. on Monday, April 13, 2009.

If you agree that the savings statute is applicable and preserves Plaintiffs’ state law claims, I will enter orders referenced above. If you disagree, I will forthwith set up a telephone conference and ask you and opposing counsel to argue it out.

Cordially,

/s/ Wm. R. Wilson, Jr.
